1. What did Steve mean by, “We need to remember that it is not what we leave FOR others that matters; it is what we leave IN them that matters most.” What legacy would you want to leave others?
2. What was the most remarkable aspect of William Tyndale’s story? (e.g. the state of the medieval Catholic Church; the Bible not being available in English; the resistance of the Church to an English Bible; the manner of persecutions; the extra-biblical practices of the Church; Tyndale’s faith; something else)
3. Do you have a passion for reading and studying the Bible? Do you find Bible reading/study easy or difficult? Is it a joy or drudgery? Do you prefer reading/studying on your own or with others?
4. Steve told stories of William McPherson and Mary Jones. In which ways did these inspire you?
5. Read 2 Tim. 3:14-17. What are we told about the benefits of Scripture? (read these verses in various versions)
6. Tyndale was passionate and committed to make the Bible accessible to everyone. How passionate are you to make the Bible’s message understandable and assessable to others? In which way do Christian organisations do this today?
7. Psalm 78:2-4, Proverbs 22:6. How important is it to pass the Christian message onto the next generation? What is the most effective way of doing this? What do you think of that advice of, “All you have to do is introduce a child to Jesus, so that when he calls, they know his voice”?
