Legacy – Week 5 – María Cristina Gómez

- What stood out to about the story María Cristina Gómez?
 - Why do you think María was so determined to help the poor women of El Salvador?
 - Was she foolish to keep trying even though she knew her life was at risk?
- After her death her church commission a local artist to paint a cross in memory of her, it depicted many of the ways she had sought to help those around her. If someone were to commission a cross in memory of you what do you hope would be on it? Would Jesus be seen as clearly in your actions as he is in María's?

- On Sunday Dan shared a number of stories of Jesus lifting people out of difficult circumstances (Luke 7:11-15, 36-39, 44-50, Luke 8:40-48), how did he do this? Can you think of any other examples from the gospels that were not shared on Sunday?
- How can we continue this Legacy in our own lives?

Read 2 Corinthians 5:16-21

- According to verse 16 'we regard no one from a worldly point of view' how then should we regard others?
- Practically speaking what does the ministry of reconciliation look like in our lives?
- Do you see yourself as an ambassador of Christ? Why / Why not?
